

Hi, I'm Shay!
(they/them)

I am a trans nonbinary queer human. I have worked in education access for the majority of my adult life, supporting limited-income and first-generation students.

I've also worked with houseless LGBTQ+ folks, and supported trans and gender diverse people. I earned my Master's degree from the University of Washington in Social Work, and I've lived in Humboldt for just over a year. In this time, I've fallen in love with taking forest, marsh, and beach walks with my dog Libby and partner Emily, and vegan baking for friends.
