Website Certification for Accuracy

Certification is due by August 22 of each year.

What is your name?

Your answer

Identify your area(s) of responsibility.

Choose ▼

Check the boxes to certify your content.

☐ I have reviewed all of the publicly facing websites and materials linked from the site(s) in my area.

☐ I am certifying that the website content for my areas is up-to-date and accurate.

Additional Instructions

Submit a ticket (or you can email tech-help@redwoods.edu) if you have content that needs to be updated prior to your certification. Don't forget to come back to this form to certify once your website is updated.

You can email Brian-VanPelt@redwoods.edu to provide you with an inventory of all of the hyperlinks and documents that link to your website for your review.

Submit

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google. Report Abuse - Terms of Service - Privacy Policy

Google Forms